

Transparent Language to Showcase Upgraded Online Language-Learning Platform at 2014 ALA Annual Conference

Conference attendees can get a sneak-peak demonstration of the all-new program interface and features in Transparent Language Online.

Nashua, N.H., June 18, 2014 – Transparent Language, Inc., a leading provider of language-learning technology for the government, education, corporate, library, and consumer markets, is set to exhibit at the American Library Association (ALA) Annual Conference, June 26-July 1, 2014, in Las Vegas, N.V. During the conference, representatives from Transparent Language will be available to demonstrate and discuss the upcoming release of an all-new version of Transparent Language Online, the company's multi-platform language-learning system.

The newest upgrade will include:

- A fully-redesigned user interface featuring easy navigation with a mouse and keyboard on computers, or with a touch-screen on tablets
- A "Learning Path" which lets users track their progress and personalize their learning experience
- A more visible "Learned Items" history that keeps track of each learner's progress and encourages regular engagement
- Access to a variety of "practice" activities and games to make learning more fun and flexible

Additionally, Transparent Language Online for Libraries includes:

- Courses and supplemental language-learning material available in over 90 foreign languages, plus extensive English learning
- Unlimited access during the entire subscription period
- Compatibility with common web browsers and operating systems
- An administrative portal that is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
- Real-time statistics with continuously updating usage reports to measure ROI
- Language-learning materials delivered entirely online with no additional media
- Mobile applications for iOS and Android™ devices

About Transparent Language, Inc.

At Transparent Language, we leverage our expertise in technology, learning, and language to build innovative language-learning and teaching software for use by US Government agencies and organizations, as well as hundreds of public libraries, thousands of schools, and millions of individuals. We are serious about language learning. We care about all languages, regardless of commercial value. We believe that language is the heart of culture. We believe that technology needs to have transformational impact on all courses and curricula, not just a few courses. It needs to benefit not only individuals, but entire programs and communities. We believe that great language technology not only changes the user experience; it transforms the economics, logistics, and reliability of language learning.
